Uncle Dan Oster from out Fourche a Renault way made the Journal office a call last Friday and presented the printers with some fine apples from his own trees.

The colored population of Potosi enjoyed a picnic given here last Friday in the grove by the colored school house. The day passed off without disturbances.

Lots of picnics are being held throughout the county, and, notwithstanding the drouth and poor crop prospects, people are attending and patronizing them freely.

While there are a good many flies about, the crop appears to be far short of the average at this season of the year. What the cause of this fly short age is hard to say, unless it can be laid to the drouth.

The Iron Mountain R.V. seems to have abandoned Potosi as a division terminus. The roundhouse force has either been dropped or sent to other points, and woe is Piedmont.

The union services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday night, at 8 o'clock. You are welcome and we urge you to come to these services.
J. R. BELLINGTON.

When they dig wells down in Ripley county the water tastes so much of oil that it is not fit to drink. In one place a lighted match was thrown into the water and there was enough oil to burn for some time.

Miss Gladys Nichols returned home the latter part of last week from a visit to relatives at Fulton, Mo. She was accompanied by a young lady friend from Fulton, whom she is entertaining here.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Southeast Missouri Fair, held at Farmington Sept. 12 to 16. Every effort is being made to make this meeting superior to all previous ones.

Sheriff Casey went to Clayton, Mo., and got as prisoner one Wm. Millano, who is under indictment in this county for selling liquor without license. Millano, it is said, was at one time a well-to-do citizen of Jefferson county.

Rev. W. A. Tetley, who was some years ago pastor of the Methodist church here, has just closed a revival meeting at Salem, Mo., which resulted in 121 conversions. It was the largest religious awakening Salem has ever had.

The Wells-Fargo Express Co. has succeeded the Pacific Express Co. on the Mo. Pac. Iron Mountain system. The change went into effect on August 1st. There has been no change in the charges however, they are as high as ever.

A civil suit was tried in Justice Settle's court here Tuesday, the case being Fred Walton vs. G. W. Dace, suit on due bill for $286.50. The jury gave the plaintiff, Walton, judgment for $180 and costs. The litigation resulted from the transfer of a stock of goods at Hopewell by Walton to Dace.

The Topozark Orchard Company's big fruit orchards and other lands at Topozark, in the southwest part of the county, are being advertised for sale under a sheriff's execution. The legal notice appears elsewhere in this issue. There are 2,713 acres involved in this sale.

The dry spring and summer has been conducive to a good increase in the supply of quails; and these game birds will be more numerous the coming hunting season than for some years past. Early broods are already in full feather and more than half grown.

The Alma shaft on the Jack Day property, near Leadwood, owned by the Potosi Lead, Barytes and Mercantile Co. will be bottomed at a depth of 420 feet about October 1st, we are informed by Mr. A. O. Nichols, mining engineer in charge. Arrangements are now being made for the erection of a crusher and reduction plant at the mine.

Crop prospects in this county have improved considerably during the past two or three weeks. Corn fields which previous to that time promised no yield at all have advanced to the extent that they now assure a partial crop. Millet and sorghum sown to offset the hay shortage is growing fine. Ground is being broken for the fall wheat seeding, of which a large acreage will undoubtedly be sown.

Wm. Rader, who escaped from the state penitentiary in Indiana about six years ago and who since that time has been a fugitive, was captured by Deputy Sheriff Otto Huitt in Washington county Friday. He is also wanted in this county to answer to a charge of burglary. Rader is a brother of Sam Rader, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life at the last term of the St. Francois county circuit court.—Elvins Mining Herald.

Much new wheat is being brought to market now by the farmers of our county and it is all fair quality. Last Thursday the Potosi Mill and Elevator Co. received 44 wagon-loads of the cereal, between 1700 and 1800 bushels. The new facilities there for handling grain are expeditious. The loaded wagon is driven upon the scales and gross weight taken, then the wagon is tilted by an apparatus that sinks the hind wheels and the load is poured out the end into a hopper underneath, where it is taken up by the elevating machinery and conveyed to the storage bins. The wagon is next raised to its level position, are taken and driven off. The whole proceedings to handle a load require only a few moments.

The new management of the Mo. Pac. Iron Mountain system has inaugurated a publicity department, to which employees are directed to forward all comment, critical or complimentary, of the service and condition of these railroads they gather from the public. Therefore, if your train happens to be late, etc., cuss the service generally within the hearing of the station agent. It's the latter's business to see to it that your comment reaches the management through the new channel. We propose to hand "em an occasional compliment on the depot in Potosi.

Fatal Shooting Near Richwoods.
Last Sunday night at Providence church, near Richwoods, Walter Lewis and James Edsell engaged in an altercation which led to Edsell striking Lewis, who ran with Edsell pursuing him. Lewis then pulled his gun and began shooting at his opponent. After three or four shots were fired Edsell was down and out, fatally hurt, and Laura Palmer, a sixteen year old girl seriously injured with a bullet in the hip. After shooting Lewis surrendered to the local constable and on Monday waived a hearing before the justice of the peace and was released under $1,000 bond to await the results of the injuries of the wounded. Sheriff Casey went out to the scene of the trouble Monday, but as Edsell appeared to be resting easy at his home, he took no further steps in the case and returned home. Tuesday the report was sent to town that Edsell died of his injuries Monday night. Thereupon Lewis came to Potosi Tuesday evening and surrendered to the county authorities, and is now lodged in jail awaiting his preliminary hearing, which will be determined Thursday. He has engaged the law firm of Byrnes, Bean & Rhodes and Attorney S. G. Nipper to defend him.

The fight and fatal consequences culminated a feud of long standing, it is said, between the Lewis and Edsell families. The Palmer girl was accidentally struck by one of the flying bullets. The affair occurred during the evening services at the Providence church.

Lewis, we are informed, will plead self-defense in extenuation of his act. He is about 22 years of age and single, while Edsell was about 44 and leaves a wife and several children.

From last week's News:
John Head was bound over to the grand jury at his preliminary hearing at Union last, under charge of killing A. B. Small, July 5th. Small, it will be remembered, was found dead in the Meramec near the mouth of Indian Creek and counterfeited dies and coins were found in his cabin. Head was arrested in a few days on suspicion of the murder, having been heard to accuse the dead man of being too attentive to his wife. At the preliminary hearing at Union last Friday it developed that Head and his wife are first cousins, having been married only about a year.

Mrs. J. G. Hulsey received a telegram Wednesday last that her daughter at Columbia, Mo., was dead and she and her husband started the same day for that place.

Mr. Stoke Rhyneer and Miss Stora Rodrique were married at Richwoods last Saturday by the Justice of the Peace. The people gave them a grand charivari. That night the house which they expected to occupy was burned. It was about a mile from any other place and the cause of the fire is unknown.

George Marler, a foreigner, was arrested at Flat River Tuesday for vagrancy and given 20 days in the county jail by Justice Ramsey's court. Marler said he had not eaten anything for 12 days, and never expected to eat anything, preferring to die. His looks indicated that his story was true. He was brought to jail and offered dinner, but refused to take it. At supper he further refused to take food. Patience ceased to be a virtue at this juncture with Sheriff London, who promptly administered a little strap tap to Marler, which had the effect of restoring his appetite in double quick time. He is now eating regularly and doing time on the rock roads with the rest of the county prisoners.—Farmington News.

Prospective passengers, waiting to board train No. 18 of the Iron Mountain railroad, were horrified last night when a man leaped in front of the engine, gesticulated wildly and appeared determined to stop the locomotive's progress. He did stop it in a way, for the engineer came to a halt as rapidly as possible. Spectators rushed to the man's rescue. But he stepped blithely forth and proclaimed in stentorian tones that he was the Son of God. He demanded that he be recognized as such. Men caught hold of him and steered to the main waiting room, hoping to calm him at least until officers could be summoned. But he wouldn't be calm. He insisted that he was Jesus Christ and he would not stand to be disputed. He tried to prove his divine identity by a timid little woman who happened to be a spectator and when she declined to confirm his declarations he started for her with blood in his eye. An old man offered several suggestions, it is said, and the supposed insane man belted him a jab on the chest that spilt the aged traveler over a couple of benches and revealed a decidedly un-Christian spirit on the part of the detained stranger. He seemed determined to rule by force if he couldn't inspire by love. Finally officers came and the man was removed to the county jail. He is said to have pulled off other sensational stunts in addition to the above related, mostly in the physical line. He is

DEATH.

Bequette, John Grant, son of Henry and Mary J. Bequette, was born March 1, 1863, and died August 4, 1911, aged 48 years, 5 months and 3 days. His funeral was conducted from the Hopewell church by the writer on August 4th. Many relatives and friends attended. His remains were laid to rest in the Hopewell cemetery.

Mr. Bequette was a fine man, as we learn from those who knew him best; industrious, sober and kindhearted. When he was a little more than one year old his father was killed by the bushwhackers in the woods on Furnace Creek, on the night of August 22, 1864. His mother later married J. A. Forshee, who survive him. He is also survived by two sisters, Fannie H. and Mary J. Bequette, and Mrs. Minnie Province, Mrs. Annie Province, Miss Julia Forshee and Oscar Forshee, half sisters and brother.
